Dear Jack,

The Project Management Institute -Greater New Orleans Chapter presents annual awards to those who support the practice of Project Management and the work of our Chapter.

It is with great pride that the PMI -Greater New Orleans Chapter presents you with a well earned Friend of the Chapter Award.

Jack, as a newcomer to our professional association, you were introduced to our chapter at the end of 2006. Last year, you gave so much of your time, energy and enthusiasm to assist our chapter in presenting the biggest Professional Development Summit in the history of our chapter. In recent years, you have hosted a conference for the professional development of managers that lead technical writing projects. With the joint conference of his technical writers and our project managers, our chapter was able to not only serve our members with a great project management and leadership programs, but also extend project management principles to a new audience that truly appreciated and benefited from what they learned.

Jack, please accept our "2007 Friend of the Chapter Award" with great gratitude. You deserve it:

Sincerely,

Ana Boudreaux
